

FOLK NIGHT AT MOGGERHANGER

Wednesday 5 December 2018

The doors open at Moggerhanger Village Hall at 7 pm for our December session with music starting about 8 pm. You have the chance to come early, get yourself a drink from our excellent bar and chat to friends before things get going. All are welcome to sing, play, listen—or all three. Entrance is free and there will be a raffle.

Below is the November selection supplied by Brian. As usual he is happy to share the Flickr link with you if you'd like to see more of these fabulous shots. To see, just click on this new link and all will be revealed <https://www.flickr.com/gp/34589148@N05/pz22pL>

Hope to see you there—but if you cannot make this one, we wish you all a Very Happy Christmas and look forward to your company in the New Year (first session is Wednesday 2 January 2019!)

Nick & Don and a bass ukulele—a first for Moggerhanger!..

Geraldine—where did you get that hat?

One hundred years on from the end of the First World War, Liz sang the song 'John Condon' with some pictures taken on a visit to the Belgian cemetery where her Great Grandfather is buried.
